UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

GEORGE GUINDON et al.

Plaintiffs

vs.

AMERICAN FOAM CORPORATION et al.

Defendants

C. A. No. 03-335-L

FILED
JUL 07 2004
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

MOTION OF PLAINTIFF MICHELLE SPENCE TO EXTEND PAGE LIMITS OF MEMORANDA AND EXHIBITS

Now comes the Plaintiff MICHELLE SPENCE, by and through counsel, and pursuant to General Order 2002-01 moves this Honorable Court for order granting her leave to exceed the maximum number of pages allowed for memoranda filed in opposition to a motion to dismiss by no more than 3 pages (23 in total), and the number of pages allowed for exhibits and affidavits by an additional 3 pages (8 in total).

As grounds, the Plaintiff states that Defendant Foamex International, Inc. requested, and was granted, leave to extend the page limits imposed by General Order 2002-01 regarding the memoranda filed in support of its motion, which is 35 pages in length with affidavits and exhibits totaling an additional 15 pages. Plaintiff has prepared her memorandum of law in support of her objection to Defendant's Rule 12(b)(6) motion

Granted: Ronald R. Lagueux Sn. USDC 7/12/04

101